Brief portrait

Learn and experience the language and the culture of Ecuador. To get closer to the country and to the culture, this course is split into three parts. Study the first two weeks in Quito. The third week you will study in Baños and then get back to Quito and work as a volunteer in a project with street children.

Target group

The course targets persons with no previous knowledge in Spanish who would nevertheless like to talk and interact with the local community. While working with children you will get the opportunity to practice the language.

Price

The price of US$ 1823 includes all costs for two persons (teaching one to two), accommodation with one of our host families, full board and laundry service as well as the travel costs and accommodation costs in Baños. Excursions in Baños are included as well.
